Dear Fellow Members,

2018 was a milestone year for our club as we set a record for membership numbers.

As the holidays pass and old man winter sets in, things are very busy at the IACL.

The various committees and volunteers are meeting and planning many wonderful upcoming events.

I wish every one of you a happy and healthy 2019. I also would like to encourage you to carry on into the New Year the little things that make the holiday season so special. Visit with family and loved ones. It is definitely more difficult for many to get around in our Michigan winters. A call or a visit can make a big difference to that special someone.

Look at the calendar of events in this issue and plan to join in as many as you can. Let's make 2019 another great year here at the Italian American Club of Livonia!

Until next time...
Stay healthy and stay warm.

As always, I can be reached at jerry1031@aol.com

Sincerely,
Jerry Ruggirello
IACL President

Veteran's Day was celebrated at the IACL on November 8th during Pasta Night. If you have never attended one of these events, I suggest you attend next year. We honor all veterans from each branch of service by singing their fight song and introducing them individually. All veterans are treated to a complimentary pasta dinner. It is a wonderful opportunity to show our gratitude to those who served our country and show our appreciation for the sacrifices they have made. Thank you to each and every one of them.

FASHIONABLY PINK fashion show to benefit Shades of Pink was held on October 28 th , which will be helping breast cancer survivors. We appreciate all our models who are breast cancer survivors and also the beautiful professional models from ROMA SPOSA who wowed our audience with the latest Bridal Fashions and Evening Gowns. A big thank you to our behind the scenes committee members including Donna Stante owner of TEASE Salon in Northville with her hair styling and gorgeous make up. All in all a beautiful event.

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION NEWS Italian American Club of Livonia

The Santa Brunch chaired by Maryann Rea and her team remains a favorite event with record attendance. It continues to grow in popularity with parents, grandparents and especially our children. SANTA CLAUS was a big hit that day and children delighted in visiting with him. Each child in attendance received a specially wrapped gift to their delight. Lots of pictures, wonderful brunch was prepared by Chef Nandi and served by our highly professional staff.

The Christmas Regional Pot Luck organized by Ann Skowronski had a great attendance with over 50 people enjoying the food they prepared. A large assortment of wonderful foods followed with a dessert table which seemed to be a mile long selection of many pastries, candies and much more. Hopefully some of our newer members will attend next year so as to treat other members to their particular culinary treats. Just two dollars per person was collected to defray portions of the cost. A bargain if ever you see one.

The Christmas Luncheon held on Tuesday, December 11 th was well attended by “regulars” with some new faces in the group who enjoyed Tripa, Salad, Pasta, Chicken, wonderful vegetables and featuring broiled lamb chops – a wonderful Culinary Extravaganza. If you missed 2018 luncheon please consider bringing your loyal employees to this super event. Hope to see you there.

Wrapping up our Christmas festivities was our annual SING-ALONG chaired by Helene LaRussa who did a fantastic job pleasing young and old alike. Past President Mary Galasso again headed the traditional reading of the NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS story along with a new book featuring SANTA’S UNDERWEAR which delighted a large group of children who participated loudly filled with anticipation of a visit from Santa. Many late letters to Santa were mailed in our special; North Pole mailbox and were promptly given to Santa for his elves to review upon his return to the North Pole. The Sing-A-Long also featured Rose Paulus and the terrific Amici Band. A beautiful, delicious buffet was enjoyed by all.

VITO IAFRATE

01/14/1923 – 11/16/2018

Vito Iafrate was born to Francesco and Antonia Iafrate in Koehler, New Mexico on January 14, 1923 and passed to Eternal Life on November 16, 2018. His loving wife Velia awaits him in heaven. He is survived by his loving daughter Antonietta, son-in-law Lou, beloved granddaughter Carla, sister Elena Iannazzi and many nieces and nephews that he adored.

When Vito was 2 years old, he left America with his Mother and siblings to return to his parent's hometown of Arpino, Italy. He fought in World War II and at the age of 24, he came to Detroit joining his 2 older brothers. He began working for Ford Motor Company and then Gargaro Excavating. At the age of 26, he returned to Arpino to marry his beloved wife Velia (Mastroianni). They returned to Detroit to start their life together and went on to enjoy 68 years together.

Vito founded Italo Romano Cement Company and was joined in partnership and friendship by Frank Fortuna. Vito retired in 1989, proud of his 48 years of hard work.

Vito has been a devoted member of the Italian American Club of Livonia since the early 1990's. He loved the Club and could be found there playing cards, bocce, enjoying pasta dinners and attending almost every activity the club offered.

Vito loved life. He was proud of his heritage and thankful for the opportunities the United States offered him. Our hearts are full of wonderful memories and joy of a life well lived. We will cherish these memories always. May He Rest in Peace.

concedi il riposo eterno nella beata pace della tua dimora,

The Chubby Little Snowman

The chubby little snowman had a carrot nose.
Along came a bunny,
And what do you suppose?
That hungry little bunny
Looking for some lunch,
Ate the carrot nose …
Nibble,
Nibble,
CRUNCH!

Halloween Party held on October 25th at the IACL. A wonderful time held by all. Don't miss out on next year's party.

TEEN TYMES

Happy 2019!

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

A new year often scares us, excites us, or comforts us. As teenagers, stepping into the new year can be overwhelming. Something that helps me adjust to the new year is creating some goals. Goals can be short term, or long term. Try and create a goal or two for the new year. This will keep you productive throughout the new year and help you feel accomplished if you achieve your goal! I wish you the best in 2019! To me, 2019 feels like it is going to be a great year!

Some goals that I recommend you to try in the new year!
1- Spread positivity - I know this sounds cheesy, and seems a little tricky, but as teenagers, we often get so competitive and judgmental, especially with social media. This year, end the trend of “hate comments” and support your peers.

2- Limit your phone usage - This can be though for me too...but, try and limit the amount you are on your phone. I know sometimes it feels like your pride and joy, but start to live in the moment. Engage in your surroundings, not your screen.

3- Get active - I know most teens are involved in some sort of sports, but that doesn’t mean you can’t stay active in other ways! Take a bike ride, go for a walk with your dog, create a game with your friends!

4- Eat better - As teens we tend to eat anything we want and brush off the consequences. However, it is still important to stay healthy! This year, cut out as much junk foods as you can. Now for me, this one is hard...especially when my dad makes the best sweets ever! Although, don’t be afraid to eat “cheat snacks!”

5- Get involved at the IACL - This one is my personal favorite :) Teens, the IACL wants you! Our generation has so much creativity and love to offer. Simply contact the club and see what you can do!

I wish you all the best this 2019! I hope you can alter my tips, make them your own, and accomplish some of them!

With love,
Ava Ruggirello

VALENTINE TREATS FOR ALL YOUR SWEETIES

By: Gina Ruggirello

Looking for a special way to show appreciation for all your loved ones this year? Step up your Valentine game with these creative upgrades to make all your giveaways extra sweet!

Classic Sugar Cookies – A Valentine's Day Essential

- Use a heart-shaped cookie cutter
- Sprinkle red or pink sanding sugar to give your cookies shine and extra sweetness
- Fill a Ziploc bag with icing, snip the tip, and carefully pipe love messages for one-of-a-kind cookies

Biscotti – For an Italian Flare

- Dye melted white chocolate with pink edible food coloring and dip each biscotti
- Roll in sprinkles for an added touch of color and texture
- Pick up some Valentine themed cellophane treat bags and ties from the dollar store and make sachets of 3-4 biscotti per bag if you have multiple Valentines

Chocolate Covered Strawberries – Simple and Sweet

- Use a microwave safe bowl to melt chocolate in 15 second increments until smooth
- Line a baking tray with parchment paper
- Dip each strawberry into the melted chocolate and set on the tray
- Once all the fruit has been dipped allow to harden in the fridge for about 1 hour
- Make each unique by alternating white and dark chocolates and rolling in sprinkles after dipping

Good luck and Happy Valentine's Day from the IACL!

TIRAMISU BREAD PUDDING

Prep Time 10 mins Cook Time 30 mins
Day-old bread becomes a delectable, coffee-infused treat for two in this Tiramisu Bread Pudding.
Dessert Servings: 2 people

Ingredients
For the Pudding
¼ cup skim milk
¼ cup espresso or very strong coffee
3 eggs
1 tbsp sugar
3 cup bread (French bread works well, or really any mild-flavored bread of your choosing) cubed
For the topping
1/3 cup mascarpone cheese
2 tbsp skim milk
1-½ tbsp powdered sugar cocoa powder to top

Instructions
In a small bowl, whisk together ¼ cup milk, eggs, espresso, and sugar.
Place the bread cubes in a medium bowl and pour the egg mixture over the cubes.
Mix to coat the bread with the egg mixture and set the mixture aside for the bread cubes to soak up the liquid while your oven preheats.
Preheat your oven to 375F.
Place the soaked bread cubes into a greased, 3 cup ramekin or oven-safe dish.
Place the ramekin on a baking sheet (to catch any bubble over) and bake for 25-30 minutes or until the pudding has set and a knife inserted into the center comes out moist, but without any crumbs attached.
Place the ramekin on a wire rack to cool slightly.
In a medium bowl, whip the mascarpone with 2 tbsp milk and powdered sugar, until light and fluffy.
Gently, remove the bread pudding from the baking dish and place on a serving plate.
Top with mascarpone topping and dust with cocoa powder. Serve immediately.

PLEASE NOTE! If you are coming for pizza, wings etc in the Club House, please call us in advance to advise us so that good, prompt service can be assured. Call Loredana, our Club Coordinator, at 734-953-1106 x2.

In Italian folklore, la Befana is the story of the three wise men who stopped at her house to ask directions on their way to Bethlehem.
They invited her to join them, but she refused as she was busy cleaning. She promised that she would catch up with them when she was finished, but by that time, they were long gone.
She frantically began running after them still carrying her broom with presents for baby Jesus, Magically, she began to fly on her broomstick but still could not find the wise men or Baby Jesus. Since then, in Italy on January 6, the Feast of the Epiphany, la Befana flies on her broom leaving gifts for children. She brings presents for the good and pieces of coal for the bad in a similar way as St Nicholas or Santa Claus.

ITALIAN

Viva viva la Befana!!
